

ROB VESCIO is a co-founder and Chief Financial Officer at C & G Strategies. With over two decades of executive experience, Rob's career has placed him at the highest level of local and state government. As a public affairs professional, he has shaped public policy and legislation for clients in non-profit organizations, for-profit companies, trade associations, unions, and more.

Rob provides individualized services that support clients' specific needs. Whether navigating state or local government, facilitating introductions with decision makers, working with stakeholders, or developing and executing strategies, he is focused on allowing each individual client to meet their goals. He has successfully represented clients in a variety of sectors including agriculture, aviation, casino gaming/horse racing, corporate tax policy, economic development, education (pre-K through higher education), energy, film and entertainment, health care, local government, college/professional sports, technology, transportation, and infrastructure.

Prior to launching C & G Strategies, Rob served as a principal and co-national chairman of the government relations arm of Dentons Cohen & Grigsby. In addition, his previous lobbying experience included six years with the former lobbying firm GSP Consulting and as a government relations professional with the law firm Tucker Arensberg. Prior to launching his lobbying practice, Rob served as a senior staff person in the Office of the Allegheny County Chief Executive and spent six years as a staff member in both the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and the Pennsylvania State Senate.

Rob is a proud alum of the University of Pittsburgh's Graduate School of Public and International Affairs (GSPIA) and earned his undergraduate degree from Mercyhurst College (now University). He is also a former board member of the Port Authority of Allegheny County (now Pittsburgh Regional Transit), PA Partnership for Children, and CORO fellowship Pittsburgh. He was recently appointed by County Executive-Elect Sara Innamorato to serve on her Transition Committee's Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.
