

TONY CRISCI is a co-founder and General Counsel at C & G Strategies. He has dedicated his entire career to government relations, representing a variety of corporations and non-profit organizations from across the Commonwealth. An effective advocate, his experience and reputation helps make connections between his clients and policy makers. Tony is an active and well-respected participant in the legislative process in Harrisburg.

Tony is known for his tireless work ethic and his ability to bring together stakeholders on any issue to find commonalities and work together. His expertise lies in government relations, legislative strategy, political action committee (PAC) regulation, and lobbying regulation. Tony is also a frequent continuing legal education (CLE) presenter.

Prior to founding C & G Strategies, Tony was a partner in Lench & Crisci PC, a partner in Holston & Cresci, owner of Crisci Associates and a principal of the government relations arm of Dentons Cohen & Grigsby. Tony is a proud badger of the University of Wisconsin – Madison where he earned his undergraduate degree before pursuing his juris doctor at Capital University Law School. He is an active Pennsylvania attorney. Outside of his work, Tony's passion is golf and can often be found playing a round.
